About Us

The Smithson Valley High School Ranger Band and Color Guard is comprised of more than 150 high-achieving student leaders who begin work on their UIL competitive show during their summer break and continue the rigorous pace of rehearsals, performances and competitions through December.

Operating as much as a “team” as any other extracurricular activity at the high school level, the Ranger Band students are held to the highest disciplinary and academic standards and continue to set records and achieve honors and recognition year after year.

Recent Accomplishments

UIL State Marching Contest Appearances 2024, 2023, 2022

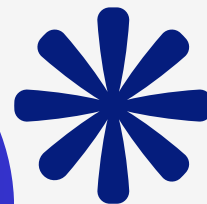

TCGC Scholastic “A” State Champions: 2025; State Qualifiers 2026

27 Students Qualified for State Solo & Ensemble in 2026
